Abu Sa'id al-Khudri reported: The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said, "The Mahdi will be from my lineage, with a curved nose. He will fill the earth with justice and equity, just as it had been filled with tyranny and oppression. He will rule for seven years."

DAY OF RECKONING

As the valorous knights of the Ummah are holding the reins of the horses and inching towards the ultimate victory of the religion with a view to inflicting heavy blow of humiliation on the infidels, some stupid infidel psyches, who are void of any intellect, have forgotten the near and the far chapters of glorious history of Islam which exposed the filth of their false creed and thoughts and destroyed their pride and haughtiness. Then in the dictionary, they introduced new terminologies, such as “freedom of speech”, “freedom of religion”, “religious tolerance”, and many other hypocritical terms whose main purpose is to forcefully feed the Islamic Ummah the sleeping pills of tolerance amid their heinous crimes of desecrating Islamic values, while their paid agents have been seen holding mass demonstration in the lands of the Muslims against basic Islamic huqums, like hijab, and the western infidels have been giving them the medal of honor, labeling such demonstrations as a “showdown of courage for achieving freedom”. On the other hand, when sincere Muslims talk about being ruled by Shari'ah, they treat such a viewpoint as “radical views” and crime, and imprison them for demanding such religious freedom, to the extent that Muslims throughout the lands of the infidels are even punished for keeping beards, wearing hijab, fasting, and so on.

However, the ignorant ones of the Islamic Ummah have been subjected to experiments by the infidels who measure the level of their Iman and their sensitivity or tolerance against the hate speech and profanation of Islamic values and move one step ahead in desecrating Islam, the Prophet ﷺ, and the Quran, so as to tune the mind of the Muslims for making them accustomed to such despicable acts in the name of “freedom of speech”. This is the secret project of the Jews and other infidels who are simply playing with the minds of the Muslim youth. And in the same sequence, one of the mentally retarded far-right Swedish politicians, kafir Ramus Paludan, burned the Holy Quran, under police protection amid protest, in front of Turkish embassy in Stockholm. This symbolic event answers to a lot of questions, as the secular West is being gradually shifted from their so-called religious tolerance to far-right extremism.

However, let us define the term “youth” from Islamic perspectives. Let us ponder over the Millah of Ibrahim (peace be upon him), who was equal to a nation due to his enormous level of faith and tawakkul (reliance) on Allah the Exalted. When he (peace be upon him) secretly destroyed the idols of the polytheists in Babil, the tyrant Namrood understood very well that this was not the act of an old man, rather it was an act of a young man, for challenging the system of Batil needs the strength of youth, and such can't be done by the old men who are more prone to worldly temptation. But if old people also go against the wind of Batil, they are not deemed old, rather they are blessed with the youthful vigor. So, now let us look upon the status of the Ummah and figure out the zealous youth with the iron-hard determination of bringing back the glory of the Ummah. Have we forgotten the lions of Islam, who opened fire at the offices of Charlie Hebdo in 2015, when they targeted the magazine stuffs for satirizing our beloved Prophet Muhammad ﷺ, killing 12 infidels and injuring 11. And in the contemporary time, Amedy Coulibaly, another lion of the Islamic State, responded to this blessed attack by killing four Jews and holding fifteen others as hostages in a kosher supermarket in Paris. Similarly, the istishhadi knights of the Islamic State detonated their explosive belts in a coordinated attack on Zaventem airport and Nalebeek station in Brussels, scoring a death toll of 32.

And many more such attacks that healed the chests of the believers which were burdened with the agony due to the attacks on the honorable position of our beloved Prophet ﷺ and desecration of the Islamic values, and the oppression, by the infidels, on the Muslims throughout the Muslim lands. But such an attack has always been condemned by the western media, as they have been highlighting on the issue of so called “shedding of innocent blood”, hiding their decades of crimes on the oppressed Muslims. And heroic attacks always the soothed hearts of the Muslims by exposing the vulnerability of the infidels of the west and east to the sword of justice of the mujahidin- the vulnerability of the infidels who thought that their heavily fortified cities will save them from the heavy reckoning of Allah the Exalted, after they inflicted heavy pain on the Islamic Ummah by indiscriminate remote controlled aerial bombing and robbed off the honor of the Ummah. But the reality is quite different from this; just as these infidels were not safe from our sharp knives of revenge yesterday, they will never be safe today. And the most important part to notice is that the perpetrators of such deadly attacks in fortified cities of Europe and North America have always made use of easily available materials and tools of carnage, blocking whose supply chain is beyond the capacity of the infidels of the west and the east. So, such retaliatory attacks will only proof the validity of the “3rd law of motion” which is, “To each action, there is an equal and opposite reaction.” But the only factor that makes the infidels forget the impact of this blessed sword of justice is the comparatively long interval between two successive slashes of this sword, and during such long interval, they accumulate enough courage to perpetrate another heinous transgression against Islam, for waking up the asleep soul of revenge of the sincere slaves of Allah, as they forget the fact that dusts of just terror (jihad) will never settle down, until the Day of Reckoning.

On the contrary, another sinister policy of the Crusaders is that they try to de-escalate the public reaction for their blasphemous acts against Islam by bringing forth some so called moderators who condemns such blasphemy, while they internally support these acts and are even behind-the-screen perpetrators of such acts. Swedish Prime Minister Ulf Kristersson condemned the burning of Quran by the far-right extremists, saying: "Burning books that are holy to many is a deeply disrespectful act. I want to express my sympathy for all Muslims who are offended by what has happened in Stockholm today." Now, the question is being the Prime Minister of a country, can he proof his innocence and disavowal from such a blasphemy in broad day light right under the nose of their law enforcers?!

On the other hand, it is a sincere reminder for the Muslims that this is not just a mere burning of their Holy Scripture, rather this is a symbolic event testifying how weak and trifle they are in front these infidels who commit any transgression against our religious values and are not answered properly thereafter through actions, other than mere verbal condemnations. And such a weakness of the Ummah is only encouraging the kuffar into more public desecration of our Islamic values. And just as the burning of Holy Quran hurts our religious devotion, the abandonment of implementation of the teachings of Quran, i.e. the Shari'ah of Allah, is another serious issue which should not be overlooked, since jihad safeguards the honor of the Ummah, and the absence of it only increases the courage of the kuffar in their transgression.

Those who are being elected by you are the ones who decide what you eat and where you can live. They make laws for you and you are made to obey them. One after another, Allah subhanahu wa Ta'ala Himself showed you the examples of the plight of the Islamic Ummah under a legal system other than Shari'ah. It is because you have forgotten Allah, so your existence is in the distress. It is the system upon which you have invested your faith blindly by forgetting the commands of Allah Ta'ala where justice for the oppressed is based solely on social and political gains of a few without taking facts into account. As long as the helpless sufferers delay seeking refuge in Allah Ta'ala, they will have to endure severe trials.

“There is no compulsion in religion. The Right way stands clearly distinguished from the wrong. Hence he who rejects the evil ones and believes in Allah has indeed taken hold of the firm, unbreakable handle. And Allah (Whom he has held for support) is All-Hearing, All-Knowing.” (2:257) Allah is the Guardian of those who believe, He brings them out of every darkness into light. And those who disbelieve, their guardians are the evil ones; they bring them out of light into all kinds of darkness. These are destined for the Fire, and there shall they abide.

Those who are supposed to guide them to the right path are the ones who formed their own political parties and helped the Hindu regime win elections. Beware of these murtaddin, who give undue weight to weak hadiths and propagate that patriotism is a part of Islam. Do you see any difference between these murtaddin and those oppressors who rule? Both stand for the forbidden passion for Nationalism and Patriotism.

“Thereupon, Ibrahim said: 'Have you seen (with your eyes) those whom you have been worshipping, you and your forefathers of yore? They are all enemies to me; all, except the Lord of the Universe.’” (26:75-77)

20 years have passed since the carnage that took the innocent lives of hundreds of Muslims in the western province of Hind, Gujarat in 2002. The fear they felt during those days is mixed with the smell of blood that they knew then and remains with them even today. A 21-year-old, 5 months pregnant woman, was on the way to another village with her 3-year old baby along with her relatives to escape from Hindu mobs. The Hindu terrorists followed them and mercilessly raped her, her mother and three other women, and killed eight of her relatives. It has been many years since 6 people of the group went missing. Bilkis Banu and her little baby survived the nightmare and fought until 11 among the perpetrators got jailed. The struggle was hectic and troublesome. Those who think that she secured justice should know a few facts. Did she get enough justice to compensate the pride she lost, the wounds she suffered and the beloved ones she lost? Did the Hindu terrorists who tore her pride into pieces get the punishment they deserved? How many people understand that it was an eye wash-strategy for political gains and vote bank? Among them there are scoundrels who committed sexual assault even during parole period of the punishment. The matter did not end there. Yes, the very same Modi and Amit Shah, who took the helm of Muslim genocide in 2002, have brought these rapists out of jail and received them with garlands. Now tell me, is the legal system of the government that you have chosen and put faith is capable of delivering justice to you?

THE ARAB-MUSLIM LAND IS LOST, THE
ISLAMIC KHILAFAH

BI'DHNILLAH

“Do you not fear (Taqwa) Allah?” [Ash-Shu'arâ', 26:124]. This question by Prophet Hud (as) to the people of Aad resonates loud and clear today throughout the Arabian Peninsula. What would the answer of the Arab Tawaghit regimes be? Hypocritically, as seasoned munafiqun, they would answer in an affirmative way, but words do not matter, deeds do. From this point of view, the muwahhidun of the Islamic Khilafah, seriously concerned about the overwhelming advance of shirk in the land of Prophet Muhammad ﷺ and his Sahabas (ra), cannot fail to express their contempt at the betrayal of Islam and of the Jihad fi Sabilillah by the Arab Tawaghit regimes.

Who has opened the door of Islam to let the shirk in? Ask the current Arab (mis)leaders, those self-styled kings, emirs, and “presidents”, who have allowed the public spread among the believers of all the wickedness that they have long been harboring deep inside the secrecy of their courts. Take the UAE for example, Dubai as well as the “quieter” Abu Dhabi: prostitution, alcohol, drugs, music, gambling, homosexuality, extreme consumerism and lust for materialistic gains, and so on and so forth. A scenario which is extremely far from the very Islamic ideal of modesty and decency for both men and women that only the Khilafah can ensure and protect. Does the an-Nahyan Taghut really fear Allah? Takfir on all the members of the Dar an-Nahyan. To seek the pleasure of the “international community”, and not of Allah the Exalted, the an-Nahyan Taghut has even pledged to “dialogue” and “coexistence” between “different” religions, forgetting that the religion is only one, at least that of the “truth” (At-Tawba, 9:29 and 9:33; Al-Fath, 48:29; As-Saff, 61:9). In doing so, they came to terms with the kuffar, but went even further, they submitted to the (global) Jewish Taghut as their “life insurance”, with the blessing of the American/Western Christian Crusaders. Something worth the desecration of the name of Prophet Ibrahim (as), it seems.

The Iranian threat is usually brought up as a justification for the “accord” the UAE has concluded with the imperialist Zionist regime of Israel. However, the UAE get along also with the murtaddin of the Khomeinist Rafidah, and thus the latter serves as a mere excuse to hide that the only true looming danger to the survival in power of the an-Nahyan Taghut is the Islamic Khilafah.

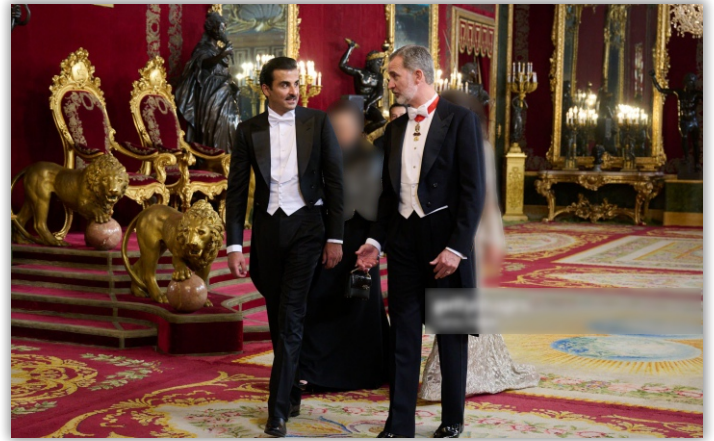

The at-Thani Taghut in Qatar is not doing much better. The Islamic flavor and narrative they strive to convey is nothing more than a façade. Their actual role in the great scheme of the “Misled Brotherhood” is obvious: enticing the Ahl Al-Sunnah wa'l-Jamaah into becoming like the Turkish Taghut, a dog that barks but does not bite anyone, with the exception of our mujahidin of course, a dreadful nemesis to eliminate. Does this remind of the Taliban in Khurasan as well, after they abandoned the Jihad fi Sabilillah?

A foot here, a foot there, a foot everywhere. Doha submitted to the protection of the American/Western Christian Crusaders, while flirting with Iran and serving at the same time the usual puppet master. Do not be fooled by the public displays of affection for Palestine staged during the "Dunya (World) Cup 2022". The at-Thani Taghut, Erdogan's bedfellow, just keeps diligently performing the task of taming the Palestinian resistance, so as to prevent it from joining en masse the Islamic Khalifah, the only force able to free the al-Aqsa Mosque and vanquish the imperialist Zionist regime of Israel once and for all. Do you know why? Because, in dealing with the Jews, the Khilafah strictly abides by the rules of jihad and qital enshrined in the Quran, without departing from the word of Allah the Exalted.

The at-Thani Taghut is under the delusion of its alleged grandeur, but it is heading toward self-destruction. Are the divisions of the LGBT-etc. army already deployed in the al-Udeid military base?

The "Dunya (World) Cup 2022" acted as a springboard for the warfare of the LGBT-etc. “community” in the whole Arabian Peninsula. The ban on the “rainbow” armbands unleashed the desired counter-offensive on the media, engaging also the players on the pitch. In addition, the clumsy attempts by Doha's officials to demand respect for “local cultural mores” were a mere pretense to save the alleged Islamic image of the at-Thani Taghut, similarly to the ban on alcohol in the stadiums, despite that alcohol was freely available in many places of pleasure outside. And what about the unveiled women featured as referees and receptionists at the stadiums?

This is what happens when the Quranic commandments of Kufr bit-Taghut and al-Wala wal-Bara are cast aside, merging with the kuffar in the contemporary jahiliyyah in order to sit on the throne of the dunya, at least for a few days: a price that the young emir Tamim gladly made his soul pay to feed the never sated nafs of his entire tribal clan. Does the at-Thani Taghut really fear Allah? Takfir on all the members of the Dar at-Thani.

During the blasphemous TV show broadcasted at the opening ceremony of the "Dunya World Cup", the at-Thani Taghut let Islam fell prey to the usual propaganda and narratives of the kuffar, which promote the deceptive concepts of "pluralism" and "coexistence" with the aim to neutralize Islam by demoting it to a level of parity with the other alleged religions.

"We... made you into nations and tribes so that you may know one another" [al-Hujurāt, 49:13]. Although the first part of this Ayah from the Quran was mentioned correctly in terms of wording, the contextualization provided by the reciter was utterly misleading. Its meaning is not, as he said, that we are supposed to "learn from each other and find beauty in our differences", and that "what unites us here right now is much greater than what separates us". Religious paths are not all equally valid.

On the contrary, mutual knowledge is required for Muslims to be able to fully understand that what divide them from the kuffar is much greater than the supposed commonalities, as pointed out in the second part of the Ayah: "The most superior of you in the sight of Allah is the one who has the most Taqwa" [al- ujurāt, 49:13], which implies for Muslims to establish His Tawheed and abstain from shirk as basic principles of the Din that mark a clear division between the Straight Path and perdition, believers and disbelievers. La ilaha ill Allah, there is no deity worthy of being worshipped except Allah, and this is the only way that is accepted. On the other hand, through the knowledge of Muslims, the kuffar are given the opportunity to recognize the truth and act accordingly by embracing Islam and adhering to the Islamic Khilafah.

The reciter pronounced the second part of the Ayah as well, but its implications were not explained: a grave omission that highlights Qatar's choice to leave the Islamic era for good and enter into the 2000s of the "Dunya World Cup", for which tons of bribes were paid to corrupt the kuffar of the FIFA Taghut.

The disrespect of the at-Thani Taghut for Islam also encompassed the treatment of migrant workers. Among them, more than 6,500, mostly Muslims, died while working as slaves in the construction of the stadiums and other facilities for over 80-90 hours a week, under extreme heat. Besides, salaries were far below the level of dignity and often unpaid, despite Qatar's enormous wealth. All of that, even though Prophet Muhammad ﷺ clearly indicated that relations between the employer and his employees need to be based on justice and equality. Indeed, Prophet Muhammad ﷺ said:

"Your servants are your brethren upon whom Allah has given you authority. So, if one has one's brethren under one's control, one should feed them with the like of what one eats and clothe them with the like of what one wears. You should not overburden them with what they cannot bear, and if you do so, help them" [Sahih al-Bukhari 2545, Book 49, Hadith 28].

This is a further "sign" that the only way forward for Muslim migrant workers is the hijrah to the Islamic Khilafah, and not to the Arab Tawaghit regimes. As for the non-Muslims migrant workers, what are they waiting for to revert to Islam and join the mujahidin in the Jihad fi Sabilillah? Before the "Dunya World Cup 2030" will be awarded to Saudi Arabia...

The largest Taghut kingdom on Arab-Muslim land deserves a special focus. The presence of Mohammed bin Salman (MbS) in Doha at the opening ceremony, sitting in the VIP grandstand close to the corrupted kafir heading the FIFA Taghut and to Tamim at-Thani, speaks volume about what the "crown prince" and newly appointed prime minister is preparing for the near future. What better occasion than hosting the same un-Islamic event to celebrate the accomplishment of his program of "change" called “Vision 2030”? Actually, more than a vision, it is a mere “imitation” of the Dubai model, aimed at fully converting the local Muslim population to a clone of the “citizens” of the American/Western Christian dunya. The de-Islamization process of Saudi Arabia has started.

Prior, jealousy and pride had pushed MbS to oppose the organization of the event by the hated at-Thani Taghut. However, deep inside his nafs, MbS was craving for being in the shoes of his rival scion Tamim, hence the turnaround and the Saudi bid for the "Dunya World Cup 2030". The loads of money promised to the FIFA Taghut will certainly ensure that MbS will see all his wishes fulfilled, and his excitement is so high that he has already started to lay the groundwork for the expected ultimate triumph of moral corruption on the most sacred soil for Islam, when he will most probably be “king” and, even more disturbing, "custodian" of the Holy Mosques in Mekkah and Medina.

No matter how much MbS is shaming the name of our beloved Prophet Muhammad ﷺ, his dissociation plan to break away from Islam continues to receive no objection by the revered fake sheikhs submitted to the authority of the al-Saud Taghut. Under their eyes, the order rooted in the Shari'ah is disintegrating bid ah (innovation) after bid ah, and with their acquiescence, they are dishonoring the legacy of the Shaykh and Imam Muhammad ibn Abd al-Wahhab. Among a major step toward Hell the fake Shaykhs consented to is the celebration of Halloween held in Riyadh- a blatantly un-Islamic feast, which sadly displayed how lost in the shirk the Saudi new generation have become.

Read yourself the words of a young man interviewed during the shallow masked parade by Arab News, a renowned mouthpiece of the Al-Saud Taghut: “It's a great celebration, honestly, and there's a spirit of joy... In terms of haram or halal, I don't know about it. We celebrate it just for the fun of it and nothing else. We don't believe in anything”.

The Saudi youth are forgetting to be Muslims, but the fake Shaykhs stay silent at the spread of atheism and nihilistic materialism among them, accompanied by the dissemination of any kind of debauchery. A blatant example are the orgies that take place publicly on a regular basis in Riyadh and Jeddah, where alcohol, drugs, women nudity, homosexuality, are the main characters, against the backdrop of demonic music that has the effect of mesmerizing the hundreds of thousands of young people who willfully join the “mixed-gender dancing” . The organization of this Satanic events is entrusted to a company bearing the telling name of “MDL Beast”, which works under the orders of the notorious “General Entertainment Authority” (GEA), the evil branch of the al-Saud Taghut regime established purposely to preside over the ongoing self-destruction.

“MDL Beast” takes pride of having “created a space that tested the limits of the kingdom's push for social change”, and openly pursues the goal to “support music in the Middle East”, meaning the putrefaction of the Islamic societies in the whole region.

Predictably, the next “party” will be hosted by the at-Thani Taghut in Qatar and, to lay the groundwork for this eerie happening, an article published by “Middle East Eye”, a Qatari-sponsored online newspaper, depicted in enthusiastic terms the scenario of the latest “Saudi music festival”: “Even a few Saudi drag queens made their way through the sea of people, asserting their individuality. Inebriated men tripped through crowds laced with the distinct scent of marijuana”. The newspaper also warned about the repeated “incidents of sexual harassment” against women, but what to expect from the “MDL Beast” satanic events?

Amid such a rampant perdition, the complicit behavior of the fake Shaykhs of the al-Saud Taghut stands out, although this should not come as a surprise, as they have never sincerely defended, and even less practiced, the manhaj of the Salaf which they claim to embody. The tiny minority of Shaykhs who dared to openly dissent from the un-Islamic enterprise of MbS have been jailed, among them the former imam of Mecca's Grand Mosque Saleh at-Talib. Guess the exact reason for his arrest? He delivered a sermon criticizing GEA's purpose and course of action. On the other hand, the pretense of wisdom and piousness of the vast majority of Shaykhs has confirmed to be just instrumental to the power interest of the al-Saud Taghut, providing a fake religious cover to its crooked policies, especially against the Jihad fi Sabilillah.

Out of fear to be crushed by the Jihad fi Sabilillah, the al-Saud Taghut, with the blessing of the fake Shaykhs, submitted immediately to the protection of the American/Western Christian Crusaders, and then created the apostate madkhalist movement to divert Muslims from the Straight Path, which was already heading toward the establishment of the Islamic Khilafah on a global level. The double denial of the legitimacy to overthrow unjust governments and to make takfir on those Muslims who disregard sharia, was proclaimed by the fake Shaykhs to spare the al-Saud Taghut from receiving an adequate retribution for the misdeeds committed.

When the Islamic Khilafah was established in Sham, the al-Saud Taghut and its fake Shaykhs were lost and in despair, and the protection of the American/Western Christian Crusaders, backed by the imperialist Zionist regime of Israel, was their only chance for survival. Yet, instead of realizing that the Khilafah was a “sign” of mercy from Allah the Exalted, in order for them to repent and return to the Straight Path, the al-Saud Taghut felt emboldened enough to launch the escalation of shirk that the fake Shaykhs are now passively witnessing. Does the al-Saud Taghut really fear Allah? Takfir on all the members of the Dar al-Saud and on its fake Shaykhs.

The latter did not lift a finger even to prevent the growing "interreligious" frenzy that has captured also the al-Saud Taghut. Peace, love, tolerance, common values, multiculturalism, diversity, and the other "nice" terms mentioned above in the cases of the UAE and Qatari Tawaghit regimes, have become the watchwords of Saudi officials and representatives as well, to the detriment of their compliance with the Tawheed as already explained.

The so-called Muslim World League (MWL) is playing a pivotal role in enabling the contamination of the Ummah with the kuffar, be them Jews, Christians, and polytheists in various other forms. MWL highest authority is the secretary general Mohammed al-Issa, himself a fake sheikh who keeps dishonoring the name of the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) as much as MbS, by shaking hands and sharing smiles in photo opportunities taken with rabbis, priests, unveiled women, and so on and so forth, to show that he is one of them.

This happens not only in the Dar al-Harb, where al-Issa is a regular guest in 5-star summits and conferences, especially in Europe, but also in the heart of the Dar al-Islam. The first "interfaith" Halloween, involving delegations of idol worshippers of all of sorts, took place recently in Riyadh, as usual, but the MWL headquarters is right in Makkah and given the current trend in Saudi Arabia there is no guarantee that the holiest city in Islam will be spared for much longer.

The Saudi "interreligious" connections are particularly intense with the Jews. It is just a matter of time before the official diplomatic recognition of the imperialist Zionist regime of Israel, but MbS can already be regarded as the main pillar of the anti-Khalifa order that the broader (global) Jewish Taghut, in alliance with the American/Western Christian Crusaders, has de facto established in the Sham, using the threat of the murtaddin of the Khomeinist Rafidah as an excuse to impose its hegemony over the Arab-Muslim land.

Not only rabbis and "interfaith" activists: Jewish businessmen with the kippah (and American/Western passports) are frequent travelers to Saudi Arabia and, soon after their trip, they are enthusiastic about sharing their experience publicly, highlighting in particular that the Saudi interlocutors are eager to establish economic ties and to get Israeli water supplies (weapons as well?). After luring the UAE (and Bahrein) into their schemes, the imperialist Zionist regime of Israel and the (global) Jewish Taghut have now focused on the al-Saud Taghut, taking advantage of the MbS soft spot for power and money (Kuwait and Oman are next on the list).

The Israeli-Saudi connection is also increasingly manifested in the European Dar al-Harb, through a prominent "dialogue center" generously sponsored by the Saudi Taghut, which is acting as the main platform for the implementation of a sophisticated Jewish-led strategy that should be of the utmost concern for Muslims.

In short, leading from behind, and sometimes acting in the front, "European" Jews are exploiting the "centre" to associate Muslims with other local "minority" groups of kuffar and idol worshippers, inciting all of them to take action to challenge and undermine the "power" of the Christian majority. This "army" of "minorities" is currently expanding, and consists of an increasing number of "activists", journalists, scholars, officials of Tawaghit governments and international organizations, politicians, migrants, refugees, and of course rabbis, imams, priests, monks, both men and women. These affiliates are heavily influenced ideologically by the Jews and their task is to execute the Jewish-designed policies of the "centre", which alongside has created also a Muslim-Jewish special body, including a wide network of rabbis and imams based in the European Dar al-Harb.

The reason why the Saudi Taghut is following (and financing) the Jews in this endeavor, lies in the desire to gain more space for maneuver and exert its own influence in the European Dar al-Harb. But what are the consequences? The Quran is inflexible in warning Muslims not to take neither Jews, nor Christians "as allies" [al-Maidah, 5:51], since they try to mislead the believers with their plots, especially the former. The fake Shaykhs are supposed to be aware of that, but they failed to fulfil their duty to prevent their patrons from joining hands with the Jews. As for the role of the "dialogue centre" and its activities, the Jews aim first to neutralize Islam within the cage of the multicultural discourse, mixed with other alleged religions, and then to put it at the service of their hegemonic goals in the European Dar al-Harb as well. Are the fake Shaykhs not worried about these developments? Or did they endorse them?

On top of that, the fake grand mufti of the Saudi Taghut, Abdul Aziz bin Abdullah as-Shaykh, and his clique, are proving not to have eyes keen enough to see how, in the context of the "diversity" championed by the "centre", also the presence of individuals from the LGBT-etc. "army" is slowly gaining ground, and their job, always according to the Jewish schemes, is precisely to relate and get together with Muslims in order to corrupt the Ummah, disintegrating it from within. "Any of you who allies with them is indeed one of them." [al-Maidah, 5:51], the Almighty Allah says.

However, if they do not see, Allah the Exalted is "the All-Seeing" [an-Nisa, 4:58]. If the kuffar plan, Allah (ﷻ) is the "Best of Planners" [al-Anfal, 8:30] and "does not guide the wrongdoing people." [al-Maidah, 5:51].

No, the Arab Tawaghit are not showing any fear (Taqwa) of Allah the Exalted. Their nafs has forgotten that Allah is the only "King" (Sahih Muslim 2143b). For rejecting the message of Islam, their predecessors, the people of Aad, "were destroyed by a fierce icy gale, which He imposed on them for seven successive days and eight nights" [al-Haqqah, 69:6-7]. Prophet Hud (ﷻ) reminded his brethren the favors received from the Lord. Prosperity, gardens, springs, progeny: "There is indeed a sign in that, but most of them do not have faith" [as-Shuara: 26:121]. "Fear Allah and obey me." [as-Shuara: 26:126], Prophet Hud (ﷻ) kept urging them: “Do you build a monument on every height for vanity's sake? And do you build fortresses as if you were to live there forever?” [as-Shuara: 26:128-129]. Timeless questions, which do apply to the Arab Tawaghit today.

After the Aad, a blast smashed the people of Thamud. Similarly, they “denied the warnings” [al-Qamar, 54:23] of their “brother Salih” (ﷺ), sent by Allah as a Prophet among his people: “Worship Allah! You have no other god besides Him” [al-A'raf, 7:73]. The Almighty sent a camel as a “sign” for them, with the only request to respect her and share with the animal a part of their water.

“Remember when He made you successors after [the people of] Aad, and settled you in the land”, Prophet Salih (ﷺ) cautioned his fellows. “You build palaces in its plains, and hew houses out of the mountains. So, remember Allah's bounties, and do not act wickedly on the earth, causing corruption” [Al-Araf, 7:74].

But “the chiefs... who were arrogant” [al-A'raf, 7:74], forgetful about the consequences of the Aad's misbelief, killed the camel, despite many among the Thamud themselves had believed out of faith in the “sign” sent by Allah the Exalted: “We indeed disbelieve in what you have believed” [al-A'raf, 7:76], they argued, before “the blast seized them”, leaving them “lifeless prostrate in their homes” [al-A'raf, 7:78]. In the same vein, is the fate of the Arab Tawaghit already sealed as well?

“The grip of your Lord is severe indeed!” [al-Buruj, 85:12]. As direct heirs of the Sahabas (رضي الله عنهم), the people who accepted the word that Allah the Exalted revealed through Prophet Muhammad ﷺ, a dreadful retribution is awaiting the Arab Tawaghit, even worse than the one inflicted upon the Aad and the Thamud.

Calamities are the outcomes of the disbelievers' sins. In recent times, think of the Covid pandemic for the American/Western Christian Crusaders and the Chinese kuffar, the natural disasters regularly striking America, Dubai's financial collapse, the grave economic recession in Sri Lanka, the flood in Pakistan, the earthquake in Khurasan amid the establishment of the new Taliban Taghut regime, the human and material losses of the Russia-Ukraine war. Shirk, kufr, lewdness, and the spreading of corruption upon the earth, are the reasons of all this suffering, as “signs” that the disbelievers are called to recognize, so that they may open themselves to the truth of Islam, and start to “hold tightly to Allah's rope altogether” [Aal-e-'Imran, 3:103]. “Whatever good befalls you is from Allah; and whatever evil befalls you is from yourself” [an-Nisa, 4:79].

With the Arab Tawaghit, Allah the Exalted has long been showing his greatest patience, forbearance, and forgiveness. Immediately after the celebration of Halloween in Riyadh, the kuffar in South Korea experienced a major deadly accident, where about 150 people were killed and another 150 got injured in a large Halloween crowd in Seoul. Isn't this a "sign" addressed to the Saudi Taghut so that they understand the mistakes they have made and redeem themselves? Nevertheless, there is no “sign” of change on the horizon, neither on their part nor from the other Arab Tawaghit. Rather, they show an ever more determined conviction to go forward along the way of perdition, according to the pact they made with Shaytan- a pact meant to drive them to failure, both in the dunya and in the Hereafter.

“They are the ones who deny the signs of their Lord and the encounter with Him. So, their works have failed. On the Day of Resurrection, We will not set for them any weight” [al-Kahf, 18:105]

“Their reward will be Hell, for their disbelief and mockery of My signs and My Messengers” [al-Kahf, 18:105].

From this point of view, the Arab Tawaghit are no less murtaddin than the Rafidah. Allah the Exalted gave them plenty of chances to redeem, but they wasted them all, even denying the “sign of the signs”: the Khilafah upon the prophetic method.

The Islamic Khilafah was sent by the Most Merciful as a “sign” of the Straight Path for all Muslims, but especially for the Arab Tawaghit, given the crucial role they play within the Ummah. Regrettably, they waged war on the mujahidin but, unlike the camel, they failed to kill us. Alhamdulillah, we are always here and we are here to stay, expand, and tear them down, one by one.

“Allah guides whom He wills to a straight path” [al-Baqarah, 2:213]. Indeed, more and more brothers and sisters, mostly of young age, are performing the hijrah to the Islamic Khilafah in every area of the world, or are joining our ranks inside their hearts and minds wherever they are, even within the Arab Tawaghit regimes that are handing over the Arab-Muslim land to shirk and kufr.

The Islamic Khilafah stands by them and by their firm rejection of what the Arab Tawaghit still in power want to make of Muslims and Islam. As true muwahhidin, the Tawheed is their light and they will resist with all their strength to the attempts of those crowned (mis)leaders and fake Shaykhs to make them sink in the deepest jahiliyyah.

They look at the Islamic Khalifah as their greatest hope, and we will not betray them. Through the Jihad fi Sabilillah, we will liberate the Arab-Muslim land, restoring the rule of Shari'ah and a true Islamic government against the traitors of the legacy of Prophet Muhammad ﷺ and his Sahabas (رضي الله عنهم). The keys to the Ka'ba are already in our hands. Allah the Exalted is with the Islamic Khilafah, "signs" are clear and all there for everybody to see. Ameen!

THE 'IBADAH OF
QITTAL

KILLING AND CORPSES

Indeed, it is a disaster on the part of the Ummah that most of the Muslims after being swayed by the propaganda of the West, detest the soldiers of Islam, who rose to defend them from their covert enemies, and accuse them of being the spreaders of corruption, mischief makers, terrorists, warmongers, and savages, and they label them with many other derogatory terms that demean their repute.

The Muslim folks, perhaps, have not realized that is a basic military strategy deployed by the mighty opponents in any Guerilla warfare, to alienate their warrior enemies from the civilian masses before eliminating them. As they want cut-off the most vital sources of supports, which replenish their war resources and maintain the sustainability of their struggle. Alas! The West led by the United States is exactly doing the same in their covert war against the Islam and the believers. The multi-billion dollar projects spread propaganda and fear among the Muslims masses to demonize jihad and the mujahidin of Islam. The TV channels and internet based media, controlled by them, relentlessly bombarded at us various manifested forms of fitnah that manage to convince the ordinary folks to believe that mujahidin are dreaded terrorists and that their noble 'Ibadah of jihad in Allah's cause, with the blood, corpses and killings that it entails, is brute form of terrorism and violence. What makes evident the complete gullibility of the Muslims into the fitnah propagated by the West is that when the soldiers of kufr perpetrate the real sense of terrorism and brutality against the innocent Muslims, it doesn't draw their attention, and on the contrary, rather such brutal acts of enemy cause their respect and awe! Thus after exalting their system of beliefs and values among the Muslim masses and successfully alienating them from the obligatory 'Ibadah of jihad and its noble cause, the agents of kufr worldwide narrow down their war against Islam and target the soldiers of the Islamic State- the mujahidin, with ease and without any fear of repercussions from the Islamic community.

So amid the grip of this fitnah deep into the thought process of Ummah, it is essential that we take a pause from the West controlled media that feed our thought process 24x7. Contemplate the authentic abandoned Islamic sources of Quran and Sunnah, and analyze if indeed this 'Ibadah of blood, corpses, and killings constitutes terrorism and mischief on the land or not? Tafseer of following Ayah of Allah the Exalted should assist the beguiled Muslims to comprehend the Islamic perspective of shedding the blood of a kafir on account of his kufr:

{They ask concerning fighting in the sacred months. Say: Fighting therein is a great

(transgression), (but) greater (transgression) with the Allah is to prevent mankind from following the way of Allah, to disbelieve in Him, to prevent access to al-Masjid al-Haram, and to drive out its inhabitants, and al-Fitnah (kufr) is worse than fighting ...} [al-Baqarah: 217]

Ibn Katheer mentioned in his tafseer the details of the incident and the circumstances that led to revelation of this Ayah. It happened that a squadron led by 'Abdullah Ibn Jahsh spilled the blood of the infidels in the sacred months of Rajab (wherein blood shed is prohibited), after the goodness of bloodshed outweighs the vice of sparing it. As the word spread, the propaganda mills of Jews and mushrikeen of Quraysh began churning malice against the Companions and the Prophet ﷺ calling them bloodthirsty warmongers who didn't even regard the sacredness of month and spilled the prohibited blood! So, when the Muslims of Madinah were at the receiving end of the Jewish propaganda (much similar to the contemporary times when the Khilafah soldiers are, as they spill the blood of the apostates, hypocrites, and infidels), Allah the Exalted revealed the above Ayah clarifying to the mankind that kufr being committed by these infidels is far more worse than the unjustified allegations of bloodshed and violence.

The commandments of Allah in other Ayat clarify it further:

{And kill them wherever you find them, and turn them out from where they have turned you out. And al-Fitnah (i.e. kufr) is worse than killing. And fight not with them at al-Masjid al-Haram, unless they fight you there. But if they attack you, then kill them. Such is the recompense of the kuffar. But if they cease, then Allah is Oft-forgiving, Most Merciful. And fight them until there is no more fitnah (i.e. kufr and shirk) and (every kind of) worship is for Allah (alone). But if they cease, let there be no transgression except against ad-Dhalimoon (transgressors)} [al-Baqarah: 191-193]

Imam Qurtubi explains in his tafseer: "Allah says that the fitnah (temptation of the world) to which they (kuffar) incite you and their constant endeavor to turn you towards kufr are more severe than the killing (bloodshed of the infidels). That is to say, their ascribing partners with Allah and disbelieving in Him are more severe crime than the killings for which they revile you..."

The words {Fight them} implies the command for the offensive fighting, not the defensive condition. And the evidence for it is {(every kind of) worship is for Allah (alone)}. Prophet ﷺ said: "I have been ordered to fight the people, until they testify, 'La ilaha ill Allah.' So, if they say this, their blood and property are protected from me, except for its (Kalimah) rights and their reckoning is with Allah." [Sahih al-Bukhari, 1399] The above mentioned Ayah and this Hadith clearly indicates the reason for fighting is the termination of "kufr". Because Allah says: {And fight them until there is more fitnah (kufr and shirk)}.

That is to say there remains no kufr and shirk. Ibn 'Abbas, Qatadah, Rabi'h, and Sadi said: “The word “fitnah” refers to shirk and all that which harm the Muslims.” It is also evident that the condition to cease jihad is the eradication of kufr completely. Allah then says that if they abandon kufr and embrace Islam, then they should not be killed. In that case, the killing (or their bloodshed) will be Dhulm (transgression).” [at-Tafseer]

Shaykh Sulayman ibn Sahman commented on above Ayah: “You should know that Allah has mentioned in His Book that kufr is worse than bloodshed. And fitnah (mentioned in this Ayah) is none other than kufr. Thus, if the village and the city were to wage war against each other to that extent that they die, this is would undoubtedly be better than setting up a partner with Allah on the earth, governing in contradiction to the Shari'ah of Allah- the legislation with which Allah the Exalted sent His Messenge ﷺ.”

What makes more evident the significance of this 'Ibadah which entails violence and bloodshed of kuffar before Allah the Exalted is His declaration: {...That is because they suffer neither thirst nor fatigue nor hunger in the cause of Allah, nor do they take any step to raise anger of kuffar nor do they inflict any injury upon an enemy, but is written to their credit as a deed of righteousness. Surely, Allah wastes not the reward of the Muhsineen} [at-Tawbah: 120]

Imam Qurtubi explained: “For every act that enrages the kuffar and inflicts humiliation upon them- such as trampling their lands, seizing their wealth, and evicting them from their own houses- Allah the Exalted has declared the reward of righteous deeds.”

Adopting a very harsh approach against the kuffar, Allah the Exalted exhorts the believers in His Book, by saying: {And make ready against them all you can of power, including steeds of war to terrorize the enemy of Allah and your enemy, and others besides whom, you may not know but whom Allah does know...}[al-Anfal: 60]

He the Exalted also says: {So, if you gain the mastery over them in war, punish them severity in order to disperse those who are behind them, so that they may learn a lesson}[al-Anfal: 57]

And Allah Almighty says: {O Prophet, wage jihad against the kuffar and the Munafiqeen, and be harsh against them, their abode is Hell...}[at-Tawbah: 73]

And letting us know the worth of kuffar before Him, Allah the Exalted has revealed: {Indeed, the worst of moving (living) creatures before Allah are those who disbelieve}[al-Anfal: 55]

And the Almighty also says: {Indeed, those who disbelieve (in Islam) from among the People of Scriptures and polytheists will abide in the Fire of Hell. They are the worst of creatures} [al-Bayyinah: 6]

So, what we understand from the above textual evidences of the authentic Islamic sources is that the spilling the kuffar's blood on account of the kufr they profess is absolutely sanctioned by Islam. Therefore, the crude violence that we witness around us via various mode of warfare- like bomb blasts, beheading, Allah ﷻ replied: “You don't possess its ability.” The question was repeated twice or thrice, and every time the Prophet ﷺ replied: “You don't possess its ability.” And he ﷻ said while he ﷻ was asked for the third time: “The likeness of a mujahid in the cause of Allah is that of a man who observes fasts, stands at night reciting Ayat of Allah and no fatigue due to fasting and praying overtakes him until the mujahid returns from jihad in the cause of Allah.” [Sahih Muslim]

The fitnah affected Muslims should know that if peaceful non-violent 'Ibadah are an aspect of Islam, then violent 'Ibadah of jihad in the cause of Allah is its another aspect in the same way. Despite the coarseness of shedding a lot of blood, this 'Ibadah involves what a pure soul may find aversive to, as Allah the Exalted says:

{“Fighting is ordained for you though dislike it, and it may be that you dislike a thing which is good for you and that you like a thing which is bad for you. Allah knows but you do not know} [al-Baqarah: 216]

He the Almighty also says: {If you march not forth, He will punish you with a painful torment} [at-Tawbah: 39]

Nevertheless, the killings and the bloodshed should not be reckless, and it has to be as per political and military strategy envisaged by the strategists of the Islamic State in respective Wilayat.

Know that we use this bloodshed (handful of kuffar) as a strategic tool in our war against kuffar, to obtain desired goals and objectives in the larger interest of Tawheed, and not to spread mischief on the lands, as being made to believe by the propagandist mills of kuffar, such as BBC, CNN, and other kufri media of the world, under their loud and empathy invoking cries of “killing of innocents.” May be, those being killed are innocent in the religion of America, but in the religion of Allah, they are all criminals of higher degree with their destiny the Hellfire.

The Muslim folks who are drowned in the propaganda of the West should perhaps introspect themselves now, in the light of evidence brought forth here.

-What is the wrong, if the soldiers of Khilafah act upon the commandment of their Lord which you choose to flagrantly disobey, and strike the cities of the infidels and the apostates, their places of entertainments, their fiefdoms of kufr and shirk- all in order to strategically kill a handful of them and desist the rest from corrupting the lands with filth of kufr and fisq?

Allah the Exalted says: {So if you gain the mastery over them in war, punish them severely in order to disperse those who are behind them, so that they may learn a lesson} [al-Anfal: 57]

Or use this strategic killings and mayhem as a military tool to restrain the might of tyrant governments from harming the Muslims either by subjecting them to direct or indirect fitnah (trial, tribulation or turmoil)?

Allah the Exalted says: {Fight against them (kuffar) so that Allah will punish them by your hands and disgrace them and give you victory over them and heal the chest the breast of the believing people. And remove the anger of their hearts} [at-Tawbah: 14-15]

Or use this Shari'ah sanctioned "just violence" as a political tool in the greater interest of Tawheed to undermine the rule of Taghuti governments, create chaos, and unrest. And destabilize their economies, weaken their might, and eventually overthrow them for establishing Islamic Khilafah and bring back the lost glory of Islam. And this noble cause of jihad and virtuous 'Ibadah is labeled as "terrorism" by the West and its allies in kufr and fisq and "corruption upon the earth" by the murtaddin and munafiqeen, since this violent form of 'Ibadah directly threatens their collective values of kufr and fisq, and put their failed civilization in existential danger. So, shall the beguiled Muslims now break-free themselves from the disillusionment that has been spread around them by the enemies of Islam and embrace violent Islamic 'Ibadah of jihad in the cause of Allah in its entirety, and join the caravan of the Khilafah soldiers, who are on the verge of putting an end to the dark night of injustice and fill the world with justice just as it was filled with injustice for years? So join the caravan of the righteous slaves of Allah who- by the grace of Allah- will replace-

- the Taghuti regimes with Khilafah upon prophetic method
- the darkness of kufr and shirk galloping the earth with the brightness of Tawheed
- the rampant injustice and oppression plaguing the lands with Islamic equality and justice
- the entrenching oppressive capitalist economic and erroneous socialist systems with the benevolent economic system of Islam ensuring the most effective balance between the rich and poor.

So, what are you waiting for now?

وَلَيَنْصُرَنَّ اللَّهُ مَن يَنْصُرُهُ

AND ALLĀH WILL SURLY SUPPORT
THOSE WHO SUPPORT HIM.

Islamic State has released a new video series from it's wilāyāt, featuring the Mujāhidīn pledging allegiance to the new Amīr of the Islamic State, Shaykh Abu Al-Hussain Al-Hussanī (May Allāh protect him). The pledge that they will remain firm upon this Manhaj even if the Millah of kufr kill it's all leaders, and they warn all those who oppose or support kuffār against them. This is the State of Ummah and it will be until the Day of judgment.

ALLAH'S HUDOOD AND TALIBAN'S

DRAMA

Praise is due to Allah, the Lord of the Worlds, Who makes His sincere slaves successful both in this world and in the Hereafter with evidence and humiliates the traders on the religion on every stage of the religion, and prayers and peace be upon the leader of the righteous, his family, his Companions, and those who adhere to him in goodness until the Day of Resurrection. As what follows after:

Everyone in the Muslim community, male and female, is aware that Allah the Almighty has set a punishment for adulterer and thief based on His High Wisdom in the Shari'ah system so that these Hudood, Qisas, the law of jizyah, and the law of exemption from infidels etc. may protect the life and honor of the Islamic Ummah and become clear criteria for identifying a system.

The Messenger of Allah ﷺ implemented these Hudood in practice, and after that, the rightly guided Khulafa also implemented them, without being afraid of the blame of the blamers for implementing them.

In a large number of books of hadith, including Sahih al-Bukhari, there is a narration from mother of the believers 'Aisha, may Allah be pleased with her, that the Quraysh were very sad about a woman from the Banu Makhzoom tribe that she had stolen something. So they discussed among themselves who would talk to the Messenger of Allah ﷺ about this woman so that he ﷺ may forgive her. So they came to the conclusion that none other than Usamah bin Zayd, who was very beloved to the Messenger of Allah ﷺ, can do this, so they spoke to him. The narrator said: "The Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: Do you advise me to compromise with one of the Hudood of Allah?! Then he ﷺ got up and gave a sermon, saying: Undoubtedly, the people who passed before you perished because when an honorable person stole from them, they left him, and when the weak among them (the poor, the helpless, those with inferior positions) stole, then he would be punished, but I swear by Allah, even if Fatima the daughter of Muhammad (ﷺ) steals, I will chop her hand."

So, look at the determination of the leader of the Muslims, the Prophet Muhammad ﷺ regarding the implementation of the Hudood of Allah, and on the other hand, see the drama of the Taliban, who attribute themselves to Islam, being loyal puppets of the American Crusaders; see how they have been mocking the Shari'ah of Allah!!

You must have heard that in the sports stadium of Loghar province, the idolatrous Taliban issued whiplashes on 12 criminals as per the plan devised their US masters. And the Taliban fighters spread this news on social media proudly that they implemented the Shari' Hudood on the thieves, homosexuals, and other criminals, but it was a great surprise when it was announced that they actually whipped the homosexuals!

However, the Taliban have publicized these punitive measures in the name of Shari' Hudood only to hide their shame and deceive their fighters who consider their striving to be jihad, as they have been whipping the homosexuals thinking that it is a Shari' Hadd!

First of all, no Muslim will be convinced that the self-made and ridiculous actions of the Taliban are the Hudood of Allah the Exalted, because in Islam, there are separate sentences (Hudood) for different criminals such as thieves, drunkards, magicians, homosexuals, adulterers, and so on. So, if someone compares Taliban's punishments with those mentioned in the Book and the Sunnah, he will easily understand that such punishments have nothing to do with the Hudood of Allah, rather they are simply mockery of the religion of Allah, which was the case of the Jews. And such criminal codes have been devised by international infidel community in the name of Shari' Hudood for deceiving the ignorant Muslims. Implementation of such criminal codes is nothing more than drama whose directors are the western Intelligence operatives and the actors are the Taliban militias.

In this drama, they think of other people as fools like themselves, and they think all the people eat grass instead of food, like the vertebrates. In this failed attempt, they have tried to convince people that they have implemented the Islamic Shari'ah and their country has become a Dar al-Islam, and that rebellion against it is forbidden, while in reality, they have implemented a secular system in Afghanistan. On one hand, they have been staging the drama of implementing fake Hudood in Afghanistan, and on the other hand, they have been pleading for the international recognition of their regime, accepting the international kufri laws and befriending all the military infidels like Russia, America, China, India, and so on.

Their foreign policy rejects the system of jizyah, concubine, and slaves, while at the same time, it accepts the Sykes-Picot border and other nationalistic borders made by the infidels, as they have abandoned jihad against the enemies of Allah. And these murtadd militias have been performing dozens of other kufri and blasphemous actions. Yet, they have been taking the empty slogans of Islam and Shari'ah.

However, they have many purposes in staging such drama for mocking the Shari'ah of Allah. They want to convince their western masters that they have adopted a customized version of Shari'ah and they don't possess any extreme views, while the second reason is to convince their followers and the common Muslims that they are upon pure Islam and there is no need for them to incline towards the Islamic State which has been striving for retrieving the lost honor of the Ummah. To the contrary, the very purpose of Shari' Hadd is that the criminals will be prohibited from doing it again. In Shari' terminology, Hadd is the punishment of [known] measure according to the Shari'ah because of the right of Allah the Exalted. And Hadd is different from the Ta'zir. Hadd is the punishment of the known measure, while Ta'zir is the punishment of unknown measure.

Imam Mawardi, may Allah have mercy on him, said in his al-Ahkam as-Sultaniyyah, page 236: "Ta'zir is the giving of punishment (to someone) for sins for which there is no specified measure (of punishment in the Shari'ah)."

Allamah Ramli said: "Ta'zir means the punishment for every sin, and it is the same whether it is for [the right of] Allah or for [the right of] human, and there is neither [specific] limit nor expiation for the punishment."

Ibn Qudamatah, may Allah have mercy on him, said: "Ta'zir is a legitimate punishment given for a crime, the measure of which is not known."

The Hanafi scholar, Ibn al-Hammam also defined Ta'zir in his saying: "Ta'zir is giving punishment without limit." [This description of Fatah al-Qadir 5/112 is also explained by Jarjani in at-Tarifat, page 55] So, Ta'zir is administered for those sins and crimes for which Shari'ah has not prescribed a Hadd or limit, while the Hadd is issued in those crimes and sins for which Shari'ah has not prescribed any Ta'zir, so now look at the hypocrisy and deception of the Taliban who published (see marked portion) in their announcement that 12 criminals were issued Ta'zir Hudood in Loghar province, whereas Ta'zir and Hudood are completely different things!!!

The image shows an official document from the Ministry of Justice of Afghanistan. The header includes the text 'د افغانستان اسلامي امارت' (Islamic Emirate of Afghanistan) and 'د لوگر د رسنيو مرکز' (Logar News Center). The document is dated '۲۰۸۰ شمراه' (2080 AH) and '۱۴۴۴/۴/۲۸ هـ ق' (1444/4/28 BH). The main text, written in Pashto, states that 12 criminals are being punished with Ta'zir Hudood. It mentions that the punishment is for crimes that do not have a fixed Hadd in Shari'ah. The document is signed by the Minister of Justice, Dr. Abdul Ghafur Khan, and the Deputy Minister, Dr. Abdul Ghafur Khan. The document is dated 1444/4/28 BH.

And by combining Ta'zir with Hudood, they deceive the simple ignorant Muslims and make their ignorant fighters silent, and they feel no shy for issuing Ta'zir for adulterers, thieves, and even homosexuals, for whom Allah the Exalted has stipulated Hudood. So, this is a brilliant example of how the murtadd Taliban militia is changing the religion of Allah, just like the Bani Israel did and earned the wrath of Allah. The Taliban stipulated 21 lashes to thieves, 21 lashes to adulterers, and 39 lashes to homosexuals, while the Shari' Huddod are completely different from them. So, is this the implementation of Shari'ah or replacing the divine laws with the laws ignorance? Is it not a nullifier of Islam?

Shari' Hadd for Adultery

If man and woman commit an act of adultery (may Allah protect us from it), and four wise Muslim men witnesses of it, and these witnesses are true in their confession, and the Shari'ah court confirms that, then it will be checked whether these adulterers are unmarried or married. For the unmarried adulterers, each of them shall be flogged 100 times, as the Almighty Allah Almighty says in verse no.2 of Surah an-Nur: {As for female and male fornicators, give each of them one hundred lashes, and do not let pity for them make you lenient in 'enforcing' the law of Allah, if you 'truly' believe in Allah and the Last Day. And let a number of believers witness their punishment} And for married adulterers, their Hadd is lashing and stoning to death. There are many reasons for this. It is narrated by 'Ubadah bin as-Samit, may Allah be pleased with him, on the authority of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "Learn from me, learn from me. Indeed, Allah Almighty made a way for them (women). If an unmarried man commits adultery with an unmarried woman, he will be whipped 100 times, and he will be banished from the region for a year, and if a married person commits adultery with a married person, then they should be given a hundred lashes and stoned to death." [Sahih Muslim: 3205]

Of course, in this hadith, lashing and stoning both are mentioned for two married adulterers, but scholars say that stoning is still valid for them and lashing is abrogated, and they say that the Prophet ﷺ stoned the Ma'az, may Allah be pleased with him, but did not flog him. Similarly, the Prophet ﷺ administered Hadd of stoning on the women of Ghamdia and Jahina tribe and on the Jewish men and women adulterers in Madinah; he ﷺ didn't replace the Shari'ah of Allah by lashing or flogging, and this is the opinion of the majority of scholars, including Imam Shafi', may Allah have mercy on him, but there are some scholars, such as Ahmad bin Hanbal. Ishaq bin Rahuyah, Imam Dawud, Imam Ibn al-Munzar, who consider flogging the married adulterers 100 times before stoning them to death. And their argument is taken from the following hadith of Sahih Muslim and incident of 'Ali, may Allah be pleased with him, when a married woman confessed that she had committed adultery, and she was flogged 100 times on Thursday and stoned to death on the following day (i.e. Friday), and he, may Allah be pleased with him, said: "I stoned her based on the Sunnah of the Messenger of Allah and the Book of Allah." [Fath al-Bari 12/119]

Narrated Abu Hurairah, may Allah be pleased with him: "A man came to Allah's Messenger 'while he' was sitting in the masjid, and he said, 'O Allah's Apostle! I have committed illegal sexual intercourse.' The Prophet 'turned his face to the other side, but that man repeated his statement four times, and after the Prophet ' bore witness against him four times, then he ' called him, saying, 'Are you mad?.' The man said, 'No.' The Prophet 'said, 'Are you married?' The man said, 'Yes.' Then the Prophet 'said, 'Take him away and stone him to death.' Jabir bin 'Abdullah said: 'I was among the ones who participated in stoning him and we stoned him in the place of 'Eid congregation prayer. When the stones troubled him, he fled, but we captured him and stoned him to death.'" This hadith is mentioned in Sahih Muslim, Sunan Abu Dawood, Darumi, and Musnad Ahmad.

Rather, we should not forget that these adulterers were married men and women, and the huqum of stoning them has been clearly revealed in the Quran, while the words of the verse and recitation of it have been abrogated, but the ruling is intact, and 'Umar, may Allah be pleased with him, said about this: "By Allah, had it not been for the fear that people would say that 'Umar has transgressed in the Book of Allah, then I would have written it in this Book of Allah that it has been revealed without any doubt, and we have written it with ourselves." [at-Tafseer Yahya bin Salam, 1/425]

It was narrated from Ibn 'Abbas that 'Umar bin Khattab said: "I fear that time will pass and someone will say: 'I do not find (sentence of) stoning in the Book of Allah, and they will go astray by abandoning one of the obligations enjoined by Allah the Exalted.' Rather, (the sentence of) stoning is a must on a married man (or woman) who has committed adultery, if there exists four witnesses against this sin, or pregnancy is revealed, or he (or she) has admitted it. I have read it (in the Quran) that if a married man and a married woman commit adultery, both of them should be stoned. The Messenger of Allah ﷺ also stoned the (married) adulterers, and we acted upon that stoning after him.'" [Sunan Ibn Majah: 2525]

So, according to Shari' definition, Hadd is a fixed and known punishment in Shariah, without any concession of excess and deficiency in it. If a ruler, for example, gives an adulterer (unmarried) more than one hundred lashes or a married adulterer any punishment other than stoning, then he becomes a disbeliever in the Shari'ah of Allah. The reason is that he has denied the Book of Allah.

Eventually, this fixed Hadd for adulterers is the religion of Allah, and any increase or decrease in it is considered an increase or decrease in the religion of Allah, which is never acceptable to Allah and His Messenger, and the believers!! So, now let the common Muslims ask the murtadd Taliban militia, "Are you not mocking the religion of Allah the Exalted by Ta'ziri Hudood?"

So, our shining swords are for those who suspend the Hudood.

Shari' Hadd for Theft:

In this way, if we pay attention to the Shari' sentence of the thief, Allah the Almighty says: {As for the male and female thieves, cut off their hands for what they have done—a deterrent from Allah. And Allah is Almighty, All-Wise}

Allah Almighty has mentioned a permanent law for the thieves until the Day of Judgment, and it is called the Hadd for theft, and the Messenger of Allah ﷺ has confirmed it in authentic hadiths.

It is reported by 'Aishah, may Allah be pleased with her that the Prophet (ﷺ) said, "The hand of a thief should be cut off for stealing a quarter of a dinar." [Sahih al-Bukhari: 6790] The dinar can be called a gold coin, and a quarter of a dinar equals approximately fifty dollars. So it's been one and half year, every day the Taliban murtaddin claim that they have arrested so many thieves, but none of them have been subjected to the Shari' Hadd, as they have changed it to 21 lashes, encouraging the thieves in further stealing!

In the books of Ibn Majah, Musnad Ahmad, as-Sunan al-Kibri, Muatta of Imam Malik etc., there is this narration: Safwan, may Allah be pleased with him, slept in the masjid. He put his cloak below his head, a thief came and pulled the cloak from his head, so he woke up and grabbed his hand, and brought him to the Messenger of Allah ﷺ. The Messenger of Allah ﷺ ordered to cut off his hand, so Safwan, may Allah be pleased with him, said to him: "O Messenger of Allah, I did not intend to bring him to you so that you would cut off his hand. This cloak of mine is a charity for him, so please, let him go." But the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said to him: "Why didn't you give him this as charity before bringing him to me?"

Let's not prolong the discussion! See the seriousness and decisiveness of the Holy Prophet ﷺ regarding the enforcement of the Shari' Hadd, and on the other hand, think about the drama of the Taliban murtaddin, who have replaced the law of Allah by the punishment of 21 lashes, and this clearly indicates the source of their so called Shari' Huddod, which is mainly legislated by the United Nations (of infidels), not Allah the Lord of the worlds!

Shari' Hadd for Homosexuality

The polytheistic Emirate has imposed a higher punishment for homosexuality than other crimes, and it is 39 lashes, while the Messenger of Allah ﷺ determined death sentence for both the perpetrator and the victim of such an act. It is reported by Ibn 'Abbas that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "Whoever of you find someone doing the action of the people of Lut, kill the one who does it, and the one to whom it is done." [Sunan Ibn Majah: 2561]

So, they need to be killed, if four righteous believers testify against them or if they confess their guilt. And the ruling is the same for both the married and the unmarried ones in homosexuality. Imam Malik, may Allah have mercy on him, asked Ibn Shihab Zuhri about the person who commits homosexuality. Ibn Shihab said: "It is stoning both of them whether married or unmarried." Imam Malik said: "And this is also my fatwa." The description of the fatwa of Imam Malik, may Allah have mercy on him, is as follows: "Both the perpetrator and to whom it is done, whether married or unmarried, have to be stoned, if four righteous witnesses testify about them." [Muatta of Imam Malik al-Adhmi, 5/1205]

In another hadith, Abu Hurairah, may Allah be pleased with him, narrated on the authority of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ that he ﷺ said: "Stone the perpetrator and to whom is done, stone them both." [Sunan Ibn Majah: 2562], Therefore, both the sayings of killing and stoning are proven the Sunnah. Therefore, all the Companions were unanimous that he, who has committed an act of homosexuality, has to be killed. But here the only difference of opinion lies in the nature of the killing.

Allamah Ibn al-Qayyim, may Allah have mercy on him, said: "All the Companions of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ agreed on killing [the homosexuals]. Not even two of them disagreed.” [The Diseases and their Cures, page 249]

Therefore, the ijthadat of the Companions differed regarding the method of killing of the homosexuals:

Quote-1: They shall be burned in the fire because Abu Bakr as-Siddiq, 'Ali bin Abi Talib, Abdullah bin az-Zubayr (may Allah be pleased with them all) and Hisham bin Abd al-Mulk, may Allah have mercy on him, have burned homosexuals in the fire. [Rawdah al-Muhbeen, page 369]

Quote -2: They have to be stoned to death, and this is the opinion of 'Umar, Ali, Ibn 'Abbas, and many other Companions (may Allah be pleased with them all). [as-Sunan al-Kibri, 8/232, Talkhees al-Habeer, 4/61]

It is worth noting that there are two opinions from 'Ali, may Allah be pleased with him: He burned a homosexual and stoned the other homosexual to death. [Rawdah al-Muhbeen, page 363]

Quote -3: A homosexual will be thrown from a high place in the city and then stones will be thrown on him. And this is also a quote from Abu Bakr and Ibn

Abbas, may Allah be pleased with him. [Zad al-Ma'ad 3/209, The Diseases and their Cures, page 249]

Quote -4: A wall shall be thrown on the homosexual and he will be under it, and this is also narrated by 'Umar, 'Uthman, and 'Ali (May Allah be pleased with them all). [Neil al-Awtar, 7/124]

Quote-5: And their Hadd is the Hadd on the adulterers, whether married or unmarried. And this is the opinion of Ibn Zubayr, may Allah be pleased with him. [Rawdah al-Muhbeen, page 363, as-Sunan al-Kibri, 8/233]

Therefore, it is clear now from the hadiths and the sayings of the Companions that there is no Ta'zir for the homosexuals, but Hadd has been decreed in the Shariah, and it is death. Undoubtedly, the way of killing them differed according to the rulers of different time. And now we ask the Taliban deviants that in which book of the Shari'ah, it was written that 39 lashes is the punishment for the homosexuals? Allahu Akbar, which religion do they belong to?! And, strangely, they say this with pride that after twenty years of occupation in Afghanistan, the Hudood have been implemented finally!!

IN RESPONSE TO THE INCIDENTS

OF BURNING AND DESECRATING THE HOLY QURAN
BY THE INFIDELS OF SWEDEN AND NETHERLANDS

Warning

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

All praise is due to Allah, the King, the Compeller, the Unique, the Subduer. And I bear witness that there is no god but Allah alone, the Lord of the heavens and the earth, and what is between them; the Strong, the All-Forgiving. And I bear witness that Muhammad is His servant and Messenger, the chosen one. May Allah's blessings be upon him, his family, his companions, and those who followed them in righteousness. As for what follows: The Almighty says: {So wait, we too are waiting with you} [Surah at-Tawbah: 52] The infidels, according to their usual habit and insolence, once again offended the perfect and comprehensive law for all mankind, the Holy and Great Scripture of Islam, the Holy Quran, as a savage from the European country Sweden has burned a copy of the Holy Quran, and then following in his footsteps, another resident of Netherland tore pages of this Holy Scripture and trampled it by his dirty feet. So, what needed from the entire Islamic Ummah was that they should have risen up against such great offence and turned the world of the infidels into red flames, but unfortunately, the Islamic land has been divided into fragmented pieces based on the false belief of nationalism, according to the international laws of kufr, while rulers over the inhabitants of these fragmented pieces, known as "countries", are the tyrannical systems, who are the bootlickers of the infidels, and now the cure for such great offence is sarcastically termed as demonstrations, which is a tool made by the infidels for deceiving masses. People chant empty slogans in the cities for a while, when such empty slogans made everyone feel that he is a warrior, and after a couple days, dusts settle down, as the hollow heroes forget the very issue that increased their voice against the armed tyrants.

And in the same vein, despite their empty bullies and victory lap for defeating the international infidels, the Taliban militias- the body guards of the infidels- in an attempt to throw dusts into eyes of the people, express their condemnation through Tweets, and at the same time, they safeguard the military infidels and take care of their interests, while they are still busy with the meetings and discussions with the representatives of the European community. The same Swedish and Dutch organizations are taking over Taliban's finances now, while their intelligence agencies are operating freely in the name of humanitarian organizations.

But we threaten all the infidels of the world!

Listen to it carefully!

We are not the ones who consider addressing issues through protests and empty chanting, which is mainly a process devised by you, and that's it. No, we are the ones who take revenge from such scoundrels by separating their flesh from their bones and spilling their blood, bi'dhnillah. Yes! You know that the warriors of the Islamic State are people of action, and they have proven this to the whole world. So beware! Our aim is to avenge the despicable and blasphemous actions of the infidels of the whole world. However, you might have deemed these strange mujahidin of the Islamic State weak due to their lack of possibilities and equipment apparently, but they are so rich with the wealth of faith and zeal that they are not in need of anything except Allah Almighty. Therefore, we assure all the disbelievers and their guardians that, bi'dhnillah, we will soon take revenge from you by the Words of the Lord of the Worlds:

{Wait, we too are waiting with you}

THE OPPRESSION ON THE
UYGHUR
MUSLIMS AND THE CONCENTRATION CAMPS IN CHINA

The Uyghurs are a largely Muslim Turkic ethnic group, with their own language and culture. Roughly 11 million are in China, and 1.5 million more live around the world. For centuries, Uyghurs have lived in a vast region of deserts, mountains and lakes in the far northwest of China, known today as Xinjiang. For thousands of years, leaders, tribes and China's imperial dynasties have fought for control of this resource-rich territory. Around the 10th century, Muslims arrived in the region and Islam became a part of Uyghur life.

During the Qing dynasty, the region was brought once again under Chinese control. In the late 19th century it was given its current name, Xinjiang, which means “new frontier” in Mandarin.

Today, Xinjiang's Uyghurs are subject to a comprehensive, targeted campaign of surveillance and control. As many as 1.5 million have been placed in concentration camps. This ongoing program of repression follows decades of tension between the Uyghurs and the Chinese government.

Zubayr Ibn 'Adi reported: We came to Anas ibn Malik, may Allah be pleased with him, and we complained to him of what we suffered from the ruler al-Hajjaj. Anas said, “Be patient, for an era will not come upon you but that what comes after is worse, until you meet your Lord. I heard it from your Prophet ﷺ.” [Source: Ṣaḥīḥ al-Bukhārī 7068]

So, how did we get here?

As civil war raged in China in the 1940s, Xinjiang experienced a brief period of independence and became known as East Turkestan. On October 1, 1949, Chinese Communist Party leader Mao Zedong declared the creation of the People's Republic of China and brought Xinjiang under its control.

In 1954, the People's Republic designated the Uyghurs as one of China's officially recognized ethnic minorities. The classification of these groups went hand-in-hand with the state's aim of fostering “a great family founded in principle on ethnic equality” and bringing minorities together under the common vision of a communist China.

In 1955, the People's Republic established the Xinjiang Uyghur Autonomous Region. In practice, the Uyghurs were not given any significant political power. This focus on ethnic identity and autonomy was seen as a way of quelling independence movements while maintaining Beijing's power over China's regions.

In 1966, an ageing Mao was keen to quash his opponents once and for all. He wanted to reinvigorate the Communist revolution and purge China of any lingering remnants of capitalism and traditional life. To achieve this, he called on the Communist Red Guards to attack the “four olds” – old ideas, old culture, old habits, and old customs.

In Xinjiang, Uyghur life was upended. Mosques were destroyed or converted into Communist Party buildings. Religious texts and Uyghur-language books were deemed anti-revolutionary, and were confiscated and burned. During this period, Mao ordered millions of China's educated, urban youth to the countryside to do hard labor on the land. Many were sent to rural Xinjiang. Mao called the program “re-education” – a phrase that would come to haunt the region more than 50 years later.

Abu Hurairah, may Allah be pleased with him, reported: The Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, “A neck will emerge from the Hellfire on the Day of Resurrection, with two eyes to see, two ears to hear, and a tongue to speak. It will say: Verily, I am in charge of three persons, every stubborn tyrant, everyone who called upon another god alongside Allah, and every maker of images.” [Source: Sunan al-Tirmidhī 2574]

Xinjiang is rich in natural resources like coal and gas, and shares borders with eight countries. From 1950 on, the Chinese Communist Party wanted to develop Xinjiang's economy and infrastructure, and shore up support for the People's Republic of China along its outer borders. The state began to encourage Han Chinese people – China's dominant ethnic group – to migrate to Xinjiang.

Skilled Han migrants were strategically relocated and placed in jobs to develop the region's oil, gas and cotton industries, and frequently given priority over Uyghurs and other local minorities. Over time, inequality and segregation between Han Chinese and Uyghurs began to grow. Uyghurs earned less and had a lower standard of living than their Han counterparts, a trend which continues to this day.

After Mao's death in 1976, his successor, Deng Xiaoping, led a policy of “reform and opening” that gave Uyghurs space to explore their cultural history and revive their traditions and religion.

By the early 1990s, Xinjiang had witnessed a resurgence of Islamic devotion and ideology, and the Uyghurs had built thousands of new mosques.

Political activism also increased in the region, and protests became more common, with some protesters calling for Uyghur independence, prompting authorities to once more tighten control of the region and clamp down on religious expression. During this period, several riots erupted between Uyghurs and Chinese police and open resistance to the Communist Party became more common.

Demonstrations, civil unrest, bombings and other attacks increased during the 90s, with violence reported on both sides. Amnesty International described the 1997 protests in the city of Gulja, as a peaceful demonstration turned massacre, quoting the exiled Uyghur activist Rebiya Kadeer. “I have never seen such viciousness in my life.” “Chinese soldiers were bludgeoning the demonstrators.”

Jabir, may Allah be pleased with him, reported: The Prophet ﷺ said, “The master of martyrs on the Day of Resurrection is Hamzah Ibn 'Abdul Muttalib and a man who stands up to a tyrannical authority, commanding good and forbidding evil and he is killed for it.” [Source: al-Majrūhīn li-Ibn Ḥibbān 1/157]

The Chinese government ascribed any violence in Xinjiang during that time to “inhuman, antisocial and barbaric acts,” and made it clear that the state saw Uyghur separatism and Islamic ideology as at the root of the unrest.

In the immediate aftermath of 9/11, China began a renewed crackdown on the Uyghurs, warning its people that Uyghur separatism and religious extremism posed a terrorist threat.

In late June 2009, a fight broke out between Uyghur and Han workers at a toy factory in the city of Shaoguan in Guangdong Province, southeast China. Two Uyghurs were killed and 120 people, mostly Uyghurs, were injured. The news was met with shock by Uyghurs thousands of miles away in Xinjiang. On July 5, a group of Uyghur students took to the streets of Urumqi, the region's capital, to protest.

Clashes between the protesters, police and Urumqi's Han residents quickly escalated. Protesters threw rocks and burned cars; troops and paramilitary police responded with bullets. Around 200 people were killed – according to the authorities, most were Han. In the following days, armed mobs of Han vigilantes ran through the city, seeking revenge on the Uyghurs. During the protests, the authorities cut off the internet in Urumqi. It was one of the first times in history that a government implemented this measure, now a favored tactic of authoritarian regimes across the world.

The 2009 riots marked a turning point for government policy in Xinjiang. In 2012, Xi Jinping was named leader of the Chinese Communist Party. During the first 18 months of his presidency, several high-profile outrages – including an ishtishaadi attack in Tiananmen Square, a train station stabbing in southern China and the bombing of a market in Urumqi – were attributed to Uyghur militants. Xi made his first and only trip to Xinjiang in 2014. On the last day of his visit, two Uyghur fighters attacked passengers at a station in Urumqi with knives and explosives. Three people were killed in the istishhadi attack, and dozens injured. Xi launched what he referred to as a “People's War on Terror” in 2014. For ordinary Uyghurs in Xinjiang, life began to change dramatically.

By 2015, the state began to roll out a massive surveillance network across the region, placing extensive restrictions on freedom of expression and religion in the name of counter-terrorism. Police checkpoints were introduced everywhere and Xinjiang residents were required to submit biometric information including iris scans, blood samples, DNA and voice samples and facial scans to the authorities. Millions of cameras and state-of-the-art facial recognition technology were deployed to track residents' every move.

Xinjiang became a testing ground for the latest developments in surveillance technology. It was also given a new regional boss: Chen Quanguo, whose previous job had been to enforce a security crackdown in Tibet. Shortly after his appointment in August 2016, Chen issued an order to “round up everyone who should be rounded up.”

2017 – Present: Camps

As the crackdown intensified in Xinjiang, authorities arrested Uyghurs for any behavior deemed potentially “extremist” – making trips or phone calls abroad, wearing a hijab, growing a long beard, or keeping Islamic books in the house. When the authorities began to confiscate passports for “safekeeping” in some parts of Xinjiang, it became nearly impossible for many Uyghurs to leave China. Police stations sprang up every few hundred yards in Xinjiang's cities.

Most troublesome of all, vast, mysterious facilities were built in the region's deserts. Human rights organizations, journalists and activists raised the alarm: they appeared to be camps. Hundreds of thousands of Uyghurs began to disappear into them. Initially, the Chinese authorities denied the existence of the camps. In August 2018, a report put together by the UN estimated that a million Uyghurs and other Muslims in Xinjiang had been imprisoned within them.

After the UN report, the Communist Party referred to the camps as “vocational training centers” intended to “re-educate” Xinjiang's Muslim population. That word brought back grim memories of the Cultural Revolution. The camps are guarded with great secrecy, though the state has allowed propaganda images to circulate of Uyghurs in classrooms, being cleansed of their religious ideology, taking lessons in communist history and Mandarin.

Uyghurs were also held in prisons and detention centers, for crimes such as having WhatsApp (a banned app in China) on their phone or messaging people abroad. Uyghurs who have been released from these centers described cramped, inhumane conditions and constant surveillance. In the fall of 2019, drone footage emerged of hundreds of blindfolded and shackled men, being marched off a train in Xinjiang. All had their heads shaved; all appeared to be Uyghur Muslims or other minority prisoners.

TONGUES

In light of the some doubts and lies spread by the enemies of Islam, especially the Taliban murtaddin, we would like to give explanation about some doubts that have drawn attention of the scholars of the Islamic State, and we would like to shed some light on these issues, accordingly. Any further clarification regarding the doubts will be addressed later on, if Allah wills. However, it is not a secret to anyone that America has handed over the power of Afghanistan to the Taliban and is supporting them enormously in every aspect, which is beyond dispute.

Question: What are the reasons behind America's comprehensive assistance to the Taliban?

Answer:

Allah the Exalted says: {Many among the People of the Book wish they could turn you 'believers' back to disbelief because of their envy, after the truth has been made clear to them} [al-Baqarah: 109]

This is the ultimate objective of the infidels that Muslims fall into the tent of apostasy, and they are ready to make any sacrifice for this purpose. They exploit military, financial, and other means to achieve their goal of bringing all the nations of the world under the banner of disbelief. And Allah the Almighty has warned us about this in His noble Book.

Muslims need to hold fast to their faith and strive to foil every machination of the infidels who want to leave the Muslims with one of the two choices: either to surrender to the infidels or choose faith. And it is not possible to choose both the choices at the same time. The disbelievers know very well that the Muslims are the people upon truth, as they believe in the promise of Allah that He the Exalted will surely help them, so these disbelievers spend all their wealth for weakening their faith. And for this purpose, they even deploy evil scholars and other factions, with empty slogans of jihad, with a view to deceiving the Islamic Ummah. And at the same time, they put different derogatory labels on the people upon the truth, who disobey them and hold fast to the rope of Allah, like the lions of the Islamic State.

So Muslim brothers! Infidels never do these acts without any purpose, so what is their purpose?

And is it permissible to seek aid from them?

Let us go through a detailed explanation of these issues.

First: All of the international organizations (like the International of Committee of Red Cross), which donate for the Muslims in the name of humanitarian aids, are the members of the international community of the disbelievers who are at war against the Muslims. So accepting such donations is against the fundamental principles of Islam.

Second: These institutions, like Red Cross, are all projects of the Crusaders and work with the vision of mass Christianization of the Muslim masses, and their charitable activities are the indispensable part of that campaign. Therefore, it is not for a believer in Allah and whatever He the Exalted has revealed to maintain contact with these agents of the infidels and to seek their assistance.

Third: These institutions use the slogans of humanitarianism, benevolence, and sympathy as a pretense to attract people, but their main goal is only mass Christianization. In the name of humanitarian aids, they systematically inject their poison into the mind of the Muslims, for corrupting their faith. And it is not the hunger, thirst or homelessness of the Muslims that are their real concerns. If such were not the case, they wouldn't have indiscriminately bombed Muslim women and children throughout the Muslim lands.

Fourth: The Red Cross, which is known as the Red Crescent in Arab countries, is an organization that was created by the Catholic Alliance of 162 infidel countries. Its sole objective is Christianization of the Muslim masses; it operates in 200 countries, and it has around 220 thousand workers, who have been trained in the Christian faith, and all their work is directly and indirectly related to the broader goal of mass Christianization, and they spread their venom to the poor and needy section of the society accordingly.

Fifth: Within the framework of these donations and humanitarian aid, part of which is the medicine and vaccination program, they distribute such harmful drugs in the name of vaccines and other charity drugs that all people have been informed about the harm of these drugs. If those are really vaccines of paralysis (like Polio), as they claim, then what is the reason for running such vaccination programs only on the poor Muslims in the third world countries?!

Sixth: The employees of these institutions have been repeatedly proven to be the spies of the infidels over and over again. They always submit their detailed reports against to the Zionists. And such espionage activities have been evident in most of the Muslim countries, including Palestine, where their employees are on intelligence missions, and many times, they have been caught red handed while spying for the infidels. For example, the Rafidah State of Iran repeatedly said that Israel, England, and America sent spies under the disguise of the Red Cross workers. Among them, Naznin Zaghari, a British woman of Iranian origin, was arrested by the Iranian Intelligence Service for the allegation of spying for the British Secret Service (MI6), and she was operating under the cover of a Red Cross employee. But do not think that this British spy of Iranian origin was arrested in Iran because she had been, under the cover of a Red Cross worker, on a landmine planting mission for the British Crusaders, in Iran. No, rather the sole purpose was to collect intel, while the humanitarian projects were just mere pretense. Even if these Crusaders launch the project of killing people for achieving their evil objective, they take their steps with great scrutiny. So, will such a filthy group send sincere people to the Muslim countries, being merciful to the Muslims? As the answer is negative, practical actions are needed against such plots.

Allah the Exalted says: {They ask you ‘O Prophet’ about fighting in the sacred months. Say, “Fighting during these months is a great sin. But hindering ‘others’ from the Path of Allah, rejecting Him, and expelling the worshippers from the Sacred Mosque is ‘a’ greater ‘sin’ in the sight of Allah. For persecution is far worse than killing. And they will not stop fighting you until they turn you away from your faith—if they can. And whoever among you renounces their faith and dies a disbeliever, their deeds will become void in this life and in the Hereafter. It is they who will be the residents of the Fire. They will be there forever} [al-Baraqaah: 217]

Their sincere employees are honest with Christianity and secularism. Therefore, this organization is a staunch enemy of Islam, so there is no need to have any kind of relationship with these people, nor should the Muslims accept their humanitarian aids. The Red Cross's headquarters is in Switzerland. And this organization was also founded with interest money, since its founder was a Christian banker.

That's why the only way of interaction with them should be killing and fighting, and this is how we can save us from their sinister plans.

During the last 20 years prior to Taliban takeover of Kabul, the same Red Cross workers had free access to the Taliban controlled territories. They used to take their wounded personnel to the hospital and the slain members to the morgue, and they were actually serving the Americans, and the Taliban had no issues with them, and they were America's own people. On the front line of the war, they were gathering information for the benefit of America and for facilitating the imprisonment of the Taliban fighters at their hands. And unquestionably, the Taliban fighters, who were treated in the Red Cross hospitals, lost their hands or feet or other limbs, as they were cut off intentionally or unintentionally so that they cannot return to the battlefield and spend their whole live with disability. But despite all this, the Taliban are now content with their apostasy and friendship with these Crusaders. Therefore, such machinations of the infidels are always indirect so that people may not understand their hidden goals. Therefore, it is mandatory for the Muslims to protect themselves from such plots.

During the Russian invasion of Afghanistan, the United States gave 700 million dollars a year to 7 so called jihadi organizations through Pakistan in the name of humanitarian aids, and yesterday, the Taliban accused those organizations of being agents of the West, but today, the same Taliban have received about two billion (one billion and 920 million dollars) from the United States in a year, and yet they consider themselves true Muslims and this money lawful like cow's milk. On one hand, they claim themselves to be the real leaders of the Islamic Ummah, and on the other hand, they don't really bother ruling by secularism and other kufri laws. So in addition to claiming to be leaders of the Islamic Ummah, the Taliban want to take control of the society through distribution of the so called humanitarian aids which are completely under control of the international kufri community and within the framework of Red Cross whose evil objectives against this Ummah have been discussed already.

In other words, it can be said that the Red Cross lays a foundation for the neo-colonization, by creating the mindset of the people, silencing and destroying the feeling of struggle and confrontation against the infidels in exchange of a few dollars.

On one hand, the enemies of Islam incarcerate the mujahidin who defend the religion, but on the other hand, they pretend to be the sympathizers of the Muslim prisoners, by providing food, clothing, and other services for them, such as allowing them to make phone calls to their families, and so on. Even, if someone wants to meet his close captive and oppressed brother in a secret prison of the infidels, then this Red Cross makes it possible for him. The question is why?

This is because the Crusaders want to show a neutral image of this sinister organization (Red Cross), so that they may earn credibility of the poor Muslims for corrupting their Aqeedah. And on many occasions, they even became successful in corrupting the faith of the former mujahidin after their imprisonment at the hands of the Crusaders. Likewise, the milk, which America and other western countries are pouring to the poor Afghan Muslims through Red Cross and Taliban Emirate, is full of poison. And every sane person understands this that the United States and the rest of the infidel states have put Taliban into power not for ruling by Shari'ah, but for their own kufri interests for which Taliban and Red Cross are nothing more than pawns.

Rather, the Taliban along with their US masters have been striving to develop a secular system that will work for the interests of the infidels- the system that deploy Taliban fighters like mad dogs in defense of the infidels and the polytheistic places, a system that necessitates the closing of the mosques and the madrassas of the muwahhidin. And such a secular system considers serving every infidel of the world and having enmity towards the muwahhdin an obligation. And that is why America and the infidel world are comprehensively supporting the Taliban.

Question: Despite the above mentioned facts, why do the Taliban still say that the Khilafah is an American project?

Answer: The Taliban Murtaddin sold their homes and territories to the US and auctioned their honors in the American market in Qatar, with sole purpose of gaining the power of Afghanistan. So, during the course of that transaction, they could have asked their US counterparts to tell the Khilafah soldiers not to put any more obstacles on the path of Taliban Emirate or they could have asked them to take the Khilafah soldiers with them at the time of withdrawal of the US troops! Was the US not able to disarm the Khilafah soldiers, just like they disarmed the former murtadd regime forces and handed them over to the Taliban?!!

Strangely, they call the Islamic Khilafah an US project, while thousands of soldiers of the Islamic State, along with their women and children, were martyred due to bombardments and night raids of the US Crusaders in the Khurasan Wilayah and also in other Wilayat! The bombardment of thousands of cruise missiles and other dirty bombs on the territories of the Islamic State is not hidden from anyone, nor hidden are those 13 slain US soldiers and 18 severely injured members of them around whom the Taliban mercenaries made a failed attempt to make a defensive wall against the attack of the Khilafah soldiers, provided that the Taliban are holding both public and secret meeting with their US counterparts, shamelessly receiving millions of dollars from them every week, and their leaders are travelling freely to the any of the foreign countries without any restrictions, while the soldiers of the Islamic State can't even release their photos publicly due to security reasons. Yet, they call the Khilafah a project of America! How peculiarly they reason! So, only those with proper intellect will understand who the real US projects are, not the dumbhead.

Another peculiar aspect of their propaganda is that they claim to have defeated America, and at the same time, they claim the Islamic State is an American project, while they are still engaged, with them, in a bloody war, decisive victory in which is yet to be announced from their side. So, this is another issue that invalidates their baseless claim. Actually, they didn't defeat the US at the first place, rather they what deemed victory over the US Crusaders was mere submission to them in Qatar.

On the other hand, the Taliban are sending messages of friendship to America in every way possible so as to earn their trust. But never in the Islamic history had it been seen that the victorious groups of the mujahidin engaged in a shameless effort of bowing down their heads to the overpowered disbelieving factions for earning their trust and friendship, whilst in the Book and the Sunnah, it has been mentioned that jihad brings glory and honor for the Ummah. So, where is the element of honor in their imaginary victory over the infidels?

Based on the shameless accusations the Taliban murtaddin made against the Khilafah, they could have pleaded with the America to ask the Khilafah soldiers to stop their deadly operations against them, since they claim that the Khilafah is an American project. And at the same time, they feel no shy to announce that America has left Afghanistan by being defeated by them, while the so called US projects are giving heavy blow to them at every place of their mass gathering. That is why lie can never prevail over the truth.

And now the Taliban murtaddin are seeking international recognition from infidel world, reiterating their peace assurance to them day and night. And the US is paying for the salaries of the Taliban regime employees. Yet, they lie that these western aids are nothing but humanitarian aids and go directly to the poor and needy people through autonomous foreign institutions (like Red Cross etc.), bypassing their pockets, which is one of the biggest lies of the 21st century. So, we ask them that have the Taliban formed an autonomous government or just another puppet government, like the former murtadd regime. Such a blatant lie once again proves the impotency of the Taliban in being the so called representatives of the Islamic Ummah. And such an invalid claim also proves how impotent the Taliban are in managing the affairs of the poor Muslims of Afghanistan, whilst they claiming to be the leaders of this Ummah!

On the other hand, the Islamic State, which calls the United Nations a great Taghut of the time, denies to submit itself to the principles of infidelity of the UN, and is against receiving any kind of donation from the infidels in the name of so called humanitarian aids, has become an American project?!!

To the contrary, every project comes up with a project value or payment from client. The client pays that amount to the contractor or vendor all at a time or in installments. In the same way, we can see Taliban playing role of US defense contractors by receiving 40 millions of dollars, sometimes twice a week (40 as per weak salary and 40 as per incentive), especially during a week when they raid a position of the Khilafah soldiers. Besides, it is a well-known fact that delegations of Taliban Intelligence visit Doha regularly for submitting their progress reports to the CIA operatives and receiving further guidelines about effective execution of the project named "War on Terror". So, it is not so difficult to presume for the insightful ones who the real US projects are.

However, since the Taliban have failed in defending their lie that the Islamic State is an American project, they have been focusing on another propaganda that the Khilafah soldiers are Khawarij, while the scholars of the Islamic State have already refuted this accusation in many publications, audio statements, and videos, and there will be further explanation regarding this topic, when the real Khawarij will be exposed in the coming days, if Allah wills.
